

NATIVE AMERICAN CONTAINERS

Native American women and girls made baskets. They were called Ollas. Some baskets were made with plants. Some baskets were made of clay. The body of the basket was round. The neck of the basket was narrow.

Sometimes they made the baskets to carry water. Sometimes they used baskets for irrigation.

The women and girls in the tribe were the ones who filled the baskets. They also fixed them if they broke.